2015 Year in Review

As the year winds down and we turn our attention to the holiday season, it is a time not only to reflect back on a successful 2015 but also look forward to the upcoming New Year. This year we changed things up with our first ever Harvest Stomp at Ceilidh Farm in Clarksburg! This was our eighth annual Sanford McFarlane Family Foundation event. It was a fun and enjoyable evening of dinner and dancing all in support of Events for Life and Jack.org.

Your continued support of The SMFFoundation will directly help Jack.org. This is Canada's only national network of young leaders who are transforming the way we think about mental health. With initiatives and programs designed for young people, by young people, we will end stigma in our generation.

We are now thrilled to be supporting the recently launched Events for Life program. This local program seeks to enrich the lives of individuals with developmental disabilities by facilitating individualized programs focused in community integration and lifelong learning.

Your support also goes a long way in helping with our involvement with The United Way in the Toronto Sports Leadership programs, Ballet Jorgen, The Child Life Fund at SickKids Foundation, and others. To find out more about these initiatives, please visit our website at <http://www.smffoundation.com/>

Christmas Came Early!

This month, we also welcomed two new additions into our growing family! Kaitlin and Trevor are now the proud parents to twin boys, Charlie and Oliver Eby born Dec. 16th. Kaitlin and Trevor are extremely happy and "The Boys" are healthy and enjoying their new world!

Our Upcoming Year

Back by popular demand, we are planning on having a second Harvest Stomp at Ceilidh Farm on September 24th, 2016! Please continue to check your email for updates throughout next year to ensure a ticket to this event! We sold out early last year and even had a lengthy waiting list...

Also, think about dusting off your bikes and training for the Jack Ride on May 28th at the Caledon Ski Club.
